

Gold Master Diver

Certification in this course is the highest and most prestigious non-leadership rating that can be attained by a YMCA Scuba diver. It is considered the supreme standard of diving excellence and is recognition of expert training. This course is often offered to students over a period of time rather than in a formal class environment. Divers completing this course will have attained at least 25 open-water experiences including dives to 100 feet in depth.

